Answering the 'WHY' of your assignment – The Motive Question

INTRODUCTION

In this session, we will be focusing on the 2nd of the 8 key assignment Questions. The 'WHY' of your assignment. Why have you been called to fulfil your assignment?

Did you know that your life is an answer to somebody's question and a solution to somebody's problem? If you were not necessary, you will not be here. There is a reason you are here, there is a purpose.

Your life is an answer to someone's question and solution to someone's problem

Day 2 - Session 1

Am Here On Purpose For A Purpose

CAN YOU ANSWER THE 3 QUESTIONS BELOW?

- Why were you born in the year you were born, into the city you were born, and the family you were born into?
- Why did God allow you to go through the experiences of life that you have gone through?
- Why are you in the position you are today, know the people you know, have the access you have, and carry the potential that is on the inside of you?

Day 2 - Session 1

Am On Purpose For A Purpose

Please note that since God gave dominion to man (in Genesis 1:28), He has chosen to do everything on earth through you and me, His representatives.

So, why are you given the assignment and calling that you have? The answer is:

For you to represent God in that area, situation, or to the people.

The only way people will see, experience, and encounter God is through you and me.

Day 2 - Session 1

Am Here On Purpose For A Purpose

Therefore, your motive must be towards the service of God and man.

Your 'WHY' determines your motive. It is important that you check your motives that it is not selfish, self-seeking, and self-centred. Anything driven from a selfish motive will always result in sadness.

So, your 'WHY' must be driven by the service of God and man.

TOP SUMMARIES

- You are here on purpose for a purpose and that purpose is to represent God.
- To locate your specific 'WHY' you need to practice PDA.
- Your 'WHY' determines your motive and your motive must be centred around the service of God and the service of man.

Answering the 'WHO' of your assignment – The Audience Question

INTRODUCTION

In this session, we are focusing on the 3rd of the Destiny / Assignment Questions. The 'WHO' of your assignment. 'WHO' have you been called to reach? The title of this chapter is 'I Am Called To Reach You.'

As I have mentioned previously, your life is an answer to somebody's question and a solution to somebody's problem. If you were not necessary, you will not be here. There is a reason you are here, there is a purpose.

Day 2 - Session 2

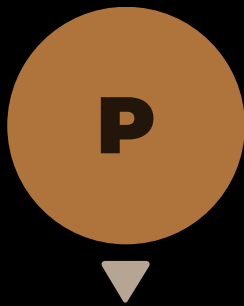

I Am Called To Reach You

CAN YOU ANSWER THE 3 QUESTIONS BELOW?

- Who are the people that you have been called to?
- How will you know when you meet them?
- When you meet them, what will determine how you engage with them; your calling, or their need?

PRACTICE P.D.A

How do you know the 'WHO' that you have been sent to, or the people you have been called to reach? I will recommend doing P.D.A, as mentioned in the previous chapters.

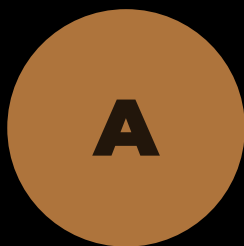

PRAY

Pray for God to give you discernment to recognise the people you have been sent to. Pray that God will orchestrate situations that will help you identify the people.

DOCUMENT

Write down the things God tell you about the people.

ACT

Act when you are given directives about who to reach. The more you act on what God tells you, the more you will hear from Him.

Day 2 - Session 2

I Am Called To Reach You

As you practice more P.D.A, the people you have been called to become clearer to you, and 3 things begin to happen.

- Inner call – 'My sheep know My voice' – e.g Nehemiah, Paul's Macedonian call.
- Peculiar situation – TV adverts that you can't get out of your mind.
- Understanding of your temperament – e.g. mechanic's passion for cars, Moses' passion to stop injustice

Day 2 - Session 2

I Am Called To Reach You

- You have not been called to everyone. If you try to meet everyone's needs around you, you will wear yourself out and still not fulfil your purpose. Don't do things based on needs but based on calling.
- I encourage you to practice P.D.A, as you do so you will get more clarity.
- As you practice PDA, you identify the people through;
 - Inner Call
 - Peculiar situation
 - Understanding of your temperament.

ACTION POINT FOR DAY 2 - SESSION 2

Answering the 'Audience Question' write your response to the questions below:

3. Who are the kind of people that your temperament deal with or does not deal with – e.g, if you can't stand Children's Church, it is likely that you are not called to children.

Keep a record of your response and I hope you have more clarity about your audience and answering the 'WHO' question of your assignment.

Never do anything because of need,
do it because of calling.

INTRODUCTION

In this session, we are focusing on the 5th of the 8 assignment Questions.

The 'WHEN' of your assignment. When should you start fulfilling your assignment?

KEY CONSIDERATIONS

- We do not have forever: What is God telling you to do or what has He told you to do that you are procrastinating? What are the things that only you can do? If you are struggling to complete them; remember, we don't have forever.
- There is an auspicious time for every assignment: If you don't start your assignment today, tomorrow you will be 24 hours older and no closer to the purpose for which you were created. So, start today...

Answering the 'HOW' of your assignment

The Process Question

INTRODUCTION

In this session, we are dealing with the 6th of the 8 Assignment Questions. The 'HOW' of your assignment.

The title of this chapter is 'How to fulfil your calling.'

Day 4 - Session 1

How To Fulfil Your Calling

MY PERSONAL STORY

Sometimes in 2015 and 2016 during my time of devotion and prayers. God started telling me extensively about the 3 'callings' (assignments) that He had placed upon my life and their order of priority.

I noticed that I was only fulfilling one of the 3 assignments and it was the third priority assignment. However, I was barely executing the first and second priority assignments.

Day 4 - Session 1

How To Fulfil Your Calling

The number 1 call God gave me was teaching. However, I was hardly teaching anything. Firstly, I believed that my environment did not give room for teaching.

Secondly, I had no room in my schedule to consider teaching. Thirdly, I did not know what to teach.

Day 4 - Session 1

How To Fulfil Your Calling

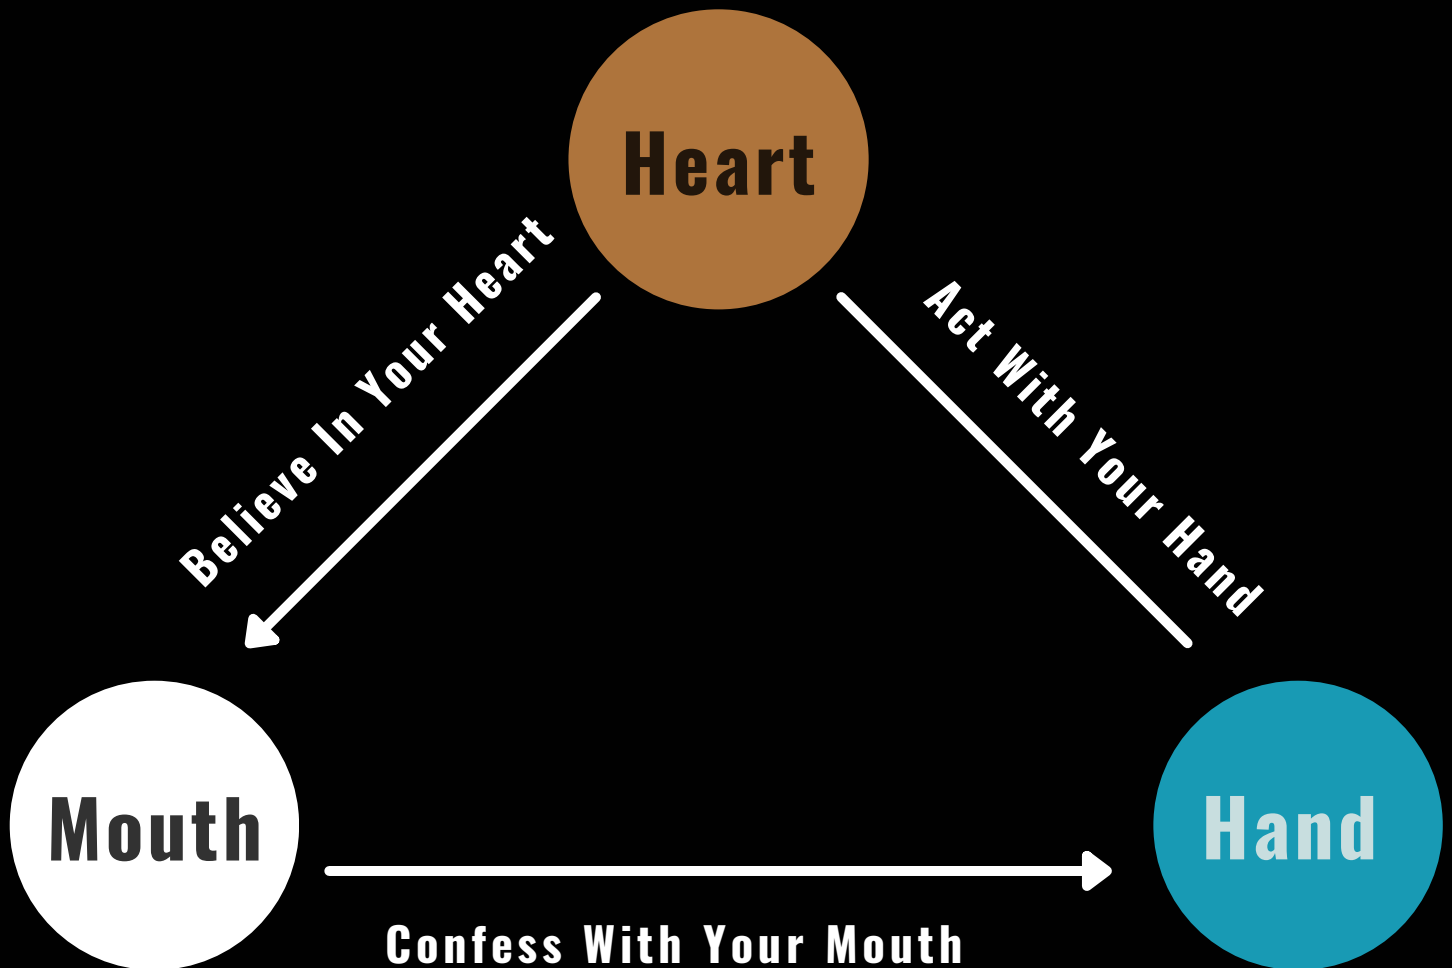

Then God led me to do 3 things which I recommend to anyone that want to fulfil their calling and answer 'the process' question of their assignment.

See the 3 things on the next page...

3 THINGS GOD LED ME TO DO

This process helped me towards fulfilling my calling in teaching people all over the world through my books (6 as at the time of this publication), radio broadcast, podcasts, seminars, events, and more.

TRIANGLE OF FAITH

THE TRIANGLE OF FAITH

- Believe In My Heart
 - I started thinking about how I will give account to God with a smile on His face. – Patterns, Destiny Scriptures, 8 key questions – contact me, go to our website.
- Confess With My Mouth
 - I confessed with my mouth – I wrote a daily confession – I was talking to God, talking to myself and the relevant people.
- Act With My Hands
 - I worked with my hand – when obstacles come, I push through.

CAN YOU ANSWER THE 3 QUESTIONS BELOW?

- Do you know your calling? Yes or No?
- If you do, on a scale of 1 to 10 (1 meaning you have not started and 10 meaning you are fulfilling your calling), how would you rate yourself in how you are fulfilling your calling?
- What help do you need in order to fulfil your calling?

Day 4 - Session 1

How To Fulfil Your Calling

KEY CONSIDERATIONS

1. There are 5 resources you have been given by God in order to fulfil your assignment.
2. You need to put these resources through the right process and fulfil your assignment.
3. The process that you need to go through towards fulfilling your call is to:
 - Believe in your heart
 - Confess with your mouth
 - Act with your hands

This is the triangle of faith – Heart, Mouth,
Hand

TOP SUMMARIES FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 1

We learned from the parables of the profitable servants in Matthew 25:14–30 and Luke 19:11–27 that the servants that fulfilled their calling/assignment did so because:

1. They believed in their heart
2. They confessed with their mouth
3. They acted with their hands

ACTION POINT FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 1

Answering the 'Process Question' write your response to the 3 questions below:

1. What do you believe in your heart is the assignment that you have been given, and what processes will it take for you to fulfil that assignment? It may be; getting more experience, enrolling for further education, starting a business, or more – write it down.

2. Confess with your mouth – Write a daily confession based on scriptures about your assignment and you fulfilling your assignment.

ACTION POINT FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 1

Answering the 'Process Question' write your response to the questions below:

3. Create a plan of action for your assignment or what you know as the process through which you can fulfil that assignment – get the necessary help to give you clarity on the stages and processes required.

Keep a record of your response and I hope you have more clarity about the 'Process Question' and answering the 'HOW' question of your assignment.

The triangle of faith is the process that enables you to fulfil your calling through believing, confessing, and acting.

I Will Arise & Fulfil

My Calling

INTRODUCTION

Somewhere in me, I knew writing books and producing educational materials was part of my assignment in life. I tried several times to start but got frustrated. Then I decided to hand it over to God, that He called me and when the time comes, He will make a way for me.

Let this be a lesson, if anything is heavy on your heart to do, maybe a dream or an assignment. Once you notice you are struggling with it, talk to God about it; hand it over to Him. So, I left the book writing in God's hands and for about 4 years nothing happened.

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil My Calling

Then on the 1st of January 2019, I woke up with an inner voice (which I believe was God) that said, “David, write a book and have it ready for your birthday on the 15th of February 2019”. I asked, “okay but what should be the book be about?”. God said, “I will tell you tomorrow.”

I woke up the next day, the 2nd of January 2019 and I had the same encounter telling me that the book should be about ‘Diamond Believer’.

I got to work immediately, and I had less than 6 weeks to get the book ready.

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil

My Calling

The process was intense. However on the 13th of February 2019, 2 days before the deadline, I was holding the book in my hand. Why? Because the moment I notice God gave me the 'green light' for the book, I told myself "I will arise and fulfil my assignment."

The book, Diamond Believer, inspired a radio broadcast, podcast, television broadcast, teenage ministry, and more because I decided that I will arrive and fulfil my assignment.

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil My Calling

The story did not end there, not only did I produce my first book, I went further to write and publish 5 more books, making me an author of 6 books in about 2 years, to the glory of God. Why? God gave the grace and I decided that I will arise and fulfil my assignment.

In this session, we will be focusing on the 7th of the 8th assignment questions. The 'NOW' of your assignment. This is the action question, that is why our conversation is titled 'I will arise and fulfil my calling'

Say this: "I will arise and fulfil my calling."

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil

My Calling

CAN YOU ANSWER THE 3 QUESTIONS BELOW?

- Do you know what your assignment in life is?
- If you do, are you fulfilling it?
- If not, what do you need to start doing today towards fulfilling your assignment?

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil My Calling

KEY CONSIDERATIONS

- The true test that you believe in your assignment is that you follow it up with your action.
- Many of us know our assignment but are not acting because of procrastination.
- One action towards your faith can open further doors of opportunities.

Day 4 - Session 2

I Will Arise & Fulfil

My Calling

TOP SUMMARIES

- Your action is the only physical proof of your faith.
- The proof that you believe in your assignment is that you act on it.
- From my story, one action towards your faith can open further doors of opportunities.

KEY SCRIPTURES TO READ AND STUDY FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 2

1. James 2:14-26 (New King James Version)
2. James 2:14-26 (The Message translation)

Key points from this scripture:

- Faith and corresponding action are to go together 'hand in glove'
- Your action is the only physical proof of your faith
- Faith without action is dead
- Your action should be inspired by your faith and your action is proof of your faith
- Your faith inspires your action, and your action proves your faith.

ACTION POINT FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 2

Answering the 'ACTION Question' write your response to the 3 questions below:

1. Review and update what you believe your assignment in life is.

2. On a scale of 1 to 10 (1 meaning you are not fulfilling your assignment and 10 meaning you are fulfilling your assignment), how will you rate yourself on a scale of fulfilling your assignment?

ACTION POINT FOR DAY 4 - SESSION 2

Answering the 'ACTION Question' write your response to the 3 questions below:

3. What action or actions do you need to embark on in the next 7 days towards fulfilling your assignment?

Keep a record of your response and I hope you have more clarity about 'The Action' question and answering the 'Now' question of your assignment.

Answering the 'SUPPORT REQUIRED' Question of your assignment – The 'AID' Question

Day 5 - Session 1

Locating Your Destiny Helpers

INTRODUCTION | KEY CONSIDERATIONS

- If you want to answer the question, how can you locate your destiny helper, make sure you are in your divine location, doing your divine assignment, and God will bring those destiny helpers your way.
- God will always bring helpers of destiny around you towards helping you fulfil your assignment e.g. Moses had Bezalel and Oholiab. Joseph had the butler, Samuel had Eli, David had Jonathan, Jesus had His disciples, and the list goes on.

Day 5 - Session 1

Locating Your Destiny Helpers

- You can check if a person is your 'Destiny Helper' by using the acronym 'AID':
 - a. Availability – they will always make themselves available for you
 - b. Inspiration – they ignite a passion in you when you are around them
 - c. Dedication – they are committed to you; they work and walk with you

Day 5 - Session 1

Locating Your Destiny Helpers

TOP SUMMARIES

- Your assignment will require you to connect with other people because if your assignment only requires you to fulfil it, is probably not from God.
- There is nothing you will do in life that will not involve people directly or indirectly.
- When you get to your divine location and doing your divine assignment, three simple ways by which you will recognise your destiny helpers can be with the use of the acronym A-I-D, A for Availability, I for Inspiration, and D for Dedication.

CAN YOU ANSWER THE 3 QUESTIONS BELOW?

- Do you believe that you alone can fulfil the work that God has called you to do? Yes or No?
- If you believe that there are people that God has called alongside you, where will you find them?
- When you get to the place where you will find them, how would you recognise them?

People will play a crucial part in your journey towards destiny fulfilment; therefore, you need to learn how to identify the right people and let them play their role in your life.

Answering the 'IDENTITY' question of your assignment – I AM

INTRODUCTION

In starting this session, I want to remind you of a very important question that we are confronted with on a day-to-day basis, as a matter of fact, this question is intricately woven into our effectiveness in life.

Let see if you can get an idea of this question:

- When your mobile phone goes to standby mode, and you want to access it – your device will ask you that question.

Day 5 - Session 2

I Know Who I Am

- When you decide to go into your social media account or go to the ATM Machine or want to access a security door in your office, you will confront that question.
- When you go to a bank, and you want to access an amount of money that the banking institution considers to be unusual from the normal day-to-day transactions. You'll be faced with that question.

Day 5 - Session 2

I Know Who I Am

- When you want to go into a country that is not considered to be your country of residence, right at the border, the point of entry, you will be confronted with this same question

Can you guess what this question is? It is the identity question:

WHO ARE YOU?

Day 5 - Session 2

I Know Who I Am

- This question is designed for one purpose only – to reveal your identity. We call it the ‘Identity Question’. We are faced with the identity question in everyday life, including the challenges that we face.
- The challenges of life are there to ask one question, ‘who are you?’ – are you a winner or a loser, are you a coward or courageous, are you the head or the tail?

KEY CONSIDERATIONS

- Life and circumstances will constantly ask you the identity question 'WHO ARE YOU'?
- Nobody becomes a failure without their own permission
- Through Jesus Christ, we have a restored identity according to Romans 8:29

Every experience we have had, and we will have on this earth (human experience) is either to secure or alter our identity

David Adabale

Day 5 - Session 2

I Know Who I Am

TOP SUMMARIES

- A person's identity is what they know about themselves and how they see themselves.
- God's original plan is for you to have dominion, but the challenges of life want to alter your identity.
- Be secure in your identity through your relationship with Jesus Christ. He's your prototype because Jesus did not fail, you will not fail.

KEY SCRIPTURES TO READ AND STUDY FOR DAY 5 - SESSION 2

Genesis 1:26-28 (Amplified Bible, Classic Edition)

Key points from this scripture:

- God is your source
- Your function is to have Dominion
- It is written about you that you are created in God's image and likeness
- Your manifesto is for you to be fruitful, and multiply, fill the earth, and more.

Day 5 - Session 2

I Know Who I Am

KEY SCRIPTURES TO READ AND STUDY FOR CHAPTER TEN

Genesis 3:8-11 (New King James Version)

Key points from this scripture:

- When Adam (and Eve) sinned, their identity was perverted as a result – he saw that he was naked.
